Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, During the annual summer meeting of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, it is appropriate that all citizens of South Dakota honor these talented and dedicated men and women whose achievements have been basic to our state's, nation's, and world's progress and development; and,

WHEREAS, As we face the challenges of uplifting the quality of life, it is indeed fitting that during the coming year the Agricultural Engineering profession will focus its emphasis on recognition of techniques which will be needed to direct systems, equipment and processes, and the renewal of attention to the importance of the basic biological and agricultural technologies of engineering and agriculture; and,

WHEREAS, The Agricultural Engineering profession has chosen the theme, "Recognition and Renewal" to reaffirm that recognizing, understanding, and accepting change is critical for adoption of the next generation of products and processes for food and agriculture; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a proud and grateful state, I pay tribute to all Agricultural Engineers, having full confidence that their accomplishments will be invaluable in solving serious problems we face:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 26 through July 2, 1988, as

AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING WEEK

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
